

What will be sold at the BBQ?

Sausage on a slice of bread (with the option of onions and sauce) and a bottle of water. Sausages and onions are the only items that will need to be cooked.

Do we need to bring anything for the BBQ?

All food, cooking equipment, gloves, aprons, float, and cleaning products will be provided. The only item we recommend bringing is signage. Only back-wall hanging banners due to wind hazards and they must be free of sponsor logos.

What's required of us?

- You will need to bring at least 6 volunteers to participate
- This is a full day commitment
- Complete all necessary inductions
- Attend the morning briefing the day of the BBQ
- Bring your hardworking attitude and smile
- Spread the word about your local show to the crowds

Do you have accommodation on-site that we can use?

Unfortunately, on-site accommodation is not available, however, we can provide a list of options.

Do you have to have training in food safety?

The RAS will hire a supervisor for the area that will be present every day of the show.

How much money do you take home?

Participating Show Societies may be eligible to receive a share of up to $25,000 in support from the RAS Foundation. Since its inception in 2018, the Big Bush BBQ has raised over $360,000 going straight back to regional NSW. We will collect the funds you raise at the end of the day, and the full amount will be bank transferred to the Show Society post-Show.

How do we get access to the site?

Once the Show Societies have been selected and allocated a day, we will provide you with entry tickets for your volunteers on the BBQ. We will also provide a limited number of P5 parking passes.

What does completion of the application document guarantee?

The expression of interest does not constitute an offer but is issued only to submit an Expression of Interest. You will be contacted to advise the outcome of your Expression of Interest at the end of year.

If our Show Society has participated before, can we apply again?

Even if you have participated in the Big Bush BBQ before, Show Societies are more than welcome to apply once again. Please note due to limited spaces, preference will be given to Show Societies who have not participated previously.
