From the President

Thank you for entering this Sydney Royal Competition and congratulations to all entrants who were successful in achieving the status of Sydney Royal medal winner. This year more than any other, as we begin the countdown to our bicentenary celebrations, we are extremely grateful to all Australian producers who support our competitions and strive to excel within their industry.

The first ever Sydney Royal medal in a competition, a silver tankard, was presented to Jonas Bradley in 1823, the first successful grower of tobacco in the new colony. Ten Spanish dollars was awarded to William Howe for cheese in 1824, and so the rich legacy of our competitions began.

To be the recipient of a Sydney Royal award is a significant accomplishment representing months, years and sometimes decades of hard work and dedication. The ability to go to market with Sydney Royal artwork on the packaging elevates your product and signifies the exceptional quality recognised by our judges.

The rewards for excellence are to be applauded this year in particular, coming off the back of once-in-a-hundred years conditions including drought, floods, fires and a global pandemic. The determination and spirit of producers right across Australia is to be applauded and appreciated. To continue to follow your passion despite seemingly insurmountable odds, and to value your work enough to enter into competitions is one thing, but to achieve outstanding results is a testament to all that the Sydney Royal competitions stand for.

Our competitions are renowned for their fair yet rigorous judging process, the professionalism and integrity of our judging panels and the relevance of our classes to industry and consumer trends. We review our Competitions every year to ensure they remain relevant to industry standards and up-to-date with changing trends and we value feedback from all entrants.

There are many people involved in making our Competitions the world-class events they are. I must thank our judges for their time, expertise and energy. Their impeccable ethics ensure only the best of the best are awarded. I also extend my gratitude to our generous Competition sponsors along with our Committees and supporters.

I hope all entrants have enjoyed their experience and take advantage of the feedback they receive as well as the marketing opportunities available for those who are Sydney Royal medal winners. I encourage all of you to enter again next year and continue to grow your product alongside those of your peers.

Australian Dairy Industry celebrates 2022 Sydney Royal Cheese & Dairy Produce Champions with results announced today.

Monday, 27 June 2022.

Australia's top cheese & dairy producers have been recognised this evening, as the Royal Agricultural Society of NSW (RAS) announced the results of its 2022 Sydney Royal Cheese & Dairy Produce Show, at a special awards ceremony held at The Stables, Sydney Showground.

After four days of competition, which highlighted the strength and depth of Australia's dairy industry, multiple states have come out on top with champions across the categories of cheese, ice cream and gelato, milk, yoghurt, cream, and butter.

Sydney Royal Cheese & Dairy Produce Show Chair of Judges, Tiffany Beer, said the produce this year was of an excellent standard and praised the judges for their knowledge and expertise.

"Champion dairy products start with great quality milk. The producers need to understand the seasonal and other characteristics of the milk, use their expertise to make products suited to the milk and be committed to ensuring the ideal conditions for that product at all stages of production", Tiffany Beer said.

"The quality of the ice creams and gelatos were excellent, most had a smooth and creamy mouthfeel, and the flavours were generally true to type. There were also some exceptional buffalo, sheep, and goat products."

"The Champion cheese was very well made, with complex well-balanced flavours and a rich creamy texture."

The prestigious Champion Cheese of Show was awarded to Berry's Creek Gourmet Cheese from Victoria, for their Oak Blue variety. Champion Cheddar went to Bega Cheese for the 6th consecutive year for its Bega Rindless Cheddar, with Meredith Dairy's Fresh Goats Cheese, Chevre, Woombye Cheese Company's, Woomby Ash Brie, and Pecora Dairy's Yarrawa rounding out the top medal-winning cheeses for the Australian Cheeseboard Perpetual Trophy.

In the ice cream and gelato category, NSW scooped the prize pool, with Gelateria Gondola, Cow and the Moon, and Mr Pisa Gelato taking out the top awards. Western Australia produced champions in the flavoured milk and yoghurt categories, while Fonterra Sprayton have proved for the 5th year running that Tasmania are churning out the best butter.

The competition aims to continuously raise the standard of the Australian dairy industry by assessing produce against benchmark scores.

Judges award points for several qualities, including flavour, aroma, texture, and presentation, awarding gold, silver, and bronze medals to those that meet the respective benchmarks.

This year's competition saw a total of 72 gold, 134 silver, and 157 bronze medals awarded.

In addition to their award, top medal winners are given the opportunity to promote their product at the Sydney Royal Easter Show and may be chosen to supply their product at one of the many events that take place at Sydney Showground throughout the year.
