SUE BOWNDS DOG GROOMING

Dogs have been in Sue's life since she was 5 when her grandparents bought the family their first dog - a beagle. Sue is a 4th generation dog show person and has been showing in confirmation events ever since. Sue definitely grew up with dogs and has been a dog lover and owner for over 60 years.

Sue has imported dogs from the UK and NZ and exported to UK, USA, NZ and Europe. Her prefix "Nangunyah" is well known all over the world. Sue kept a small number of dogs and had 1-2 litters per year. She had outstanding success in the showing with her beagles winning her first best in show in 1979. This continued throughout the next 40 years with many best in show awards at all breeds and specialty shows.

She began judging in 1980 and became an all breeds judge in 2014, judging best in shows all over the world. Sue has judged in USA, UK, Poland, Denmark, Thailand, China, New Zealand, Croatia, Ireland, Germany, Phillipines, Czech Republic, South Africa, Israel, Finland, Austria and Slovenia and has 4 overseas appointments in 2022.

Sue has worked on the committees of specialty and all breeds clubs and is currently the Chair of the Confirmation Judges Training Committee.

Sue began grooming coated breeds with the acquisition of her English Springer Spaniel in 1990 and enjoyed the challenge. She was a guest judge on the Australian TV show, Pooch Perfect in 2019 together with world renowned groomers. Sue can appreciate the effort and skill needed to groom dogs both for confirmation classes and grooming competitions. She is looking forward to her appointment at Sydney Royal in 2022 after judging confirmation there in 2021.
