Royal Agricultural Society of NSW

Welcome from the President

As we begin the countdown to our bicentenary celebrations, we are proud to host Australia's finest agricultural competitions. Encouraging innovation and rewarding excellence in food and wine production is not only at the heart of our charter, but a tradition carried forward from the inception of the Royal Agricultural Society of NSW in July 1822. Our competitions continue attracting talented and ambitious producers not just from across the state, but Australia-wide.

The Royal Agricultural Society of NSW began judging and assessing livestock, alcohol, coffee and farm produce in the early 1800s and has a proud history of encouraging excellence and promoting the virtues of Australian producers. Your involvement with Sydney Royal competitions establishes your place in our history and I'd like to congratulate and thank you for taking this step.

Entering one of our Sydney Royal competitions provides a platform for benchmarking your product and equips all well deserving prize winners with a distinguishing asset. A Sydney Royal medal is highly regarded in the food and beverage industries and can be used as a marketing tool to help consumers easily identify the best of the best.

Regardless of being a medal winner, as a Sydney Royal entrant you will receive valuable feedback from the judges along with insight into where your product sits against industry benchmarks. This can sometimes be even more important than a Sydney Royal medal in that it can help you evolve, improve and raise your standing in the competitive consumer field.

The integrity of our Sydney Royal Competitions rests in the hands of accomplished, impartial and independent judges. Their professionalism, energy and high ethical standards are as impressive as the calibre of entries the competitions attract. I'd like to thank our judges and also extend my deepest thanks to the stewards, Competition partners, Committees and supporters.

I wish you all the best of luck in the competition and hope you benefit positively from this Sydney Royal experience.

MESSAGE FROM CHAIR OF JUDGES

It would be nice to not need mention COVID-19 and the many impacts it has had on our lives over the last 2.5 years but unfortunately the fallout is still reverberating through the Australian wine industry. Sales channel disruptions, export chaos, shipping delays, border closures, increased production costs and the cost of doing business are ongoing issues. We may look back and realise it made us more resilient, but for the time being things are really tough for everyone.

It has been no different for the Royal Agricultural Society of NSW who provide an important service to our industry through the Sydney Royal Wine Show. After regrettably needing to cancel the 2020 show they performed a great feat in managing to execute the 2021 show in December with reduced judge numbers and an almost entirely NSW judging panel. I was pleased to be able to be a part of it, timing is everything.

Congratulations to the RAS and Wine Show Committee for safely executing the 2021 show. Here's hoping for an easier and more diverse show in 2022!

Thank you to outgoing Chair of Judges; PJ Charteris for the nomination to take on the role of Chief Judge. The importance of the Sydney Royal Wine Show and the role it plays in our industry has been evident throughout my career.

It is a great honour to collate and lead a diverse judging panel of talented industry professionals from across Australia and many industry roles. Our aim being to provide quality appraisals of the entries and valuable feedback to industry. A shopping list for consumers is always a bonus of the efforts of the judges.

I am pleased to announce some inclusions to the schedule that I think reflect the position of both the Australian wine producing industry and the important end user; the wine consumer:

- Best Grenache Trophy
- Introducing a Class for NOLO Wines (No or low alcohol wines)

There is a lot that is unfamiliar across the world and as we look to diversify our sales channels and to emerging markets, benchmarking of wine quality feels like it should be on everyone's agenda for when there is peace, travel and the opportunity to celebrate the strength of Australian wine.

I look forward to the show being back to its regular timing and best of luck to all the exhibitors.

Regards,

Sarah Crowe
Chair of Judges
KPMG Sydney Royal Wine Show

The Royal Agricultural Society of NSW conducts an annual wine sale, using a portion of excess wine show stock, to benefit the Australian wine industry. All proceeds are used to fund wine industry scholarships and other initiatives.

The money raised since the first wine sale in 2017, has assisted in expanding the RAS Foundation Scholarship programmes detailed below. In addition, through a partnership with Wine Australia, funds have been used to promote the Australian Wine Industry, supporting wine education and Australian wine exports. More information can be found on our website www.rasnsw.com.au/wine.

Len Evans Tutorial

2022 KPMG SYDNEY ROYAL WINE SHOW SPECIAL REGULATIONS

1. CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

A Condition of entering into the Competition is strict adherence to the following, collectively known as “the Regulations”.

- Conditions of Entry to Sydney Showground located at www.rasnsw.com.au
- RAS General Regulations
- All Special Regulations in this Schedule

The Application for Entry and the Regulations constitute the whole agreement upon which Entries are submitted and the Exhibitor agrees that all representations and statements not appearing on the Application for Entry or in the Regulations are excluded. The General Regulations apply to all sections of the KPMG Sydney Royal Wine Show (“the Show”). The Sydney Royal Wine Show Special Regulations apply to this section only. Unless expressly stated in the Special Regulations, if there is any inconsistency between the General Regulations and these Special Regulations, the Wine Show Special Regulations prevail. Copies of all Regulations are available from the administration office at the Showground. RAS General Regulations are available at www.rasnsw.com.au.

2. ELIGIBILITY OF PRODUCTS

All Exhibits must comply with the respective Acts of the Commonwealth and of the State in which they are produced which relate to the growing of the grapes and making of wine or brandy and to the Regulations made thereunder. These include the Customs and Excise Act and Regulations, Health Act and Regulations, and the Australian Wine and Brandy Corporation Act 1980. Exhibits not complying with these Regulations will be disqualified.

3. ORIGIN OF EXHIBIT

All Exhibits must be produced in Australia from 100% Australian grown grapes. Each Exhibit must be the absolute property of the Exhibitor.

4. COMMERCIAL AVAILABILITY

Exhibits must come from a commercially bottled run and must not be bottled specifically for the wine show. Entries must fulfil the specified stock-holding requirements as at time of entry (see clause 5) and be intended for sale in Australia within the twelve months following judging. Cleanskin wines which have not yet been allocated final commercial titles should not be entered (see clause 8)

5. STOCK-HOLDING REQUIREMENTS

Please refer to Class listings pages 20-23 for minimum quantity of stockholding required for each Class.

Volumes are bottled stock as at the time of entry except in the case of white and rosé entries from the 2022 Vintage; for these Classes the volume is as at the opening time of delivery, being Monday 11 July 2022. For 2022 white/rosé entries please provide your planned production quantities in dozens for wine to be commercially bottled by the aforementioned date.

The Closing Date of Entry for all Exhibits remains Wednesday 11 May 2022

On the Application for Entry please ensure actual bottle stock quantities are listed, not simply the minimum quantity, as this may affect your eligibility for trophies and/or special prizes (refer to Special Regulation 26).

Please note that additional holdings of bulk and tirage stock for Fortified & Sparkling Classes must be provided on your Application for Entry.

6. ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

No single Exhibit may be entered in more than one (1) Class.

Please refer to Class listings pages 20-23 for maximum entries permitted per Exhibitor per Class. Where an Exhibitor is permitted to enter more than one (1) Exhibit per Class, each Exhibit must be different and these differences are to be identified on the Application for Entry.

An Exhibit may not be entered in duplicate by more than one (1) Exhibitor. An Exhibit may be considered entered “in duplicate” if, in the opinion of the RAS:

- The Exhibit entered has the same or substantially similar Commercial or Brand Name, ingredients, or method or production as another, despite being produced by two or more separate producers; or
- The Exhibitor implies to the end consumer that the Exhibit is the same product in any other way.

Classes entered must reflect the varietal description on the Exhibit’s commercial label. Exhibits labelled as single varietals must be entered in the single varietal Classes and comply with the requirements of the Label Integrity Program (LIP) i.e., a minimum of 85% of the variety stipulated.

Exhibits labelled as blends must be entered into the relevant blend Classes according to their varietal makeup. Grenache, Cabernet and Shiraz-dominant blends (‘dominant’ refers to these varieties being the largest single variety in the blend) must be entered in Classes 26, 32 to 34, or 39 to 41. As examples, an Exhibit labelled Shiraz Viognier containing 95% Shiraz should be entered into a Class for Shiraz-dominant blends, as should a wine commercially titled “Mary’s Blend” which contains 60% Shiraz and 40% other varietal/s.

At the time of judging, if an Exhibit is determined to have been entered into the incorrect Class, the Exhibit will be disqualified without a refund of Entry Fee.

Please refer to Special Regulation 10 in regard to Class transfers and Special Regulation 32 in regard to disqualifications.

All Exhibitors must strictly comply with Auditing, Special Regulation 33. For an Exhibit to be eligible for judging, Exhibitors must ensure that all requirements as specified in the auditing Special Regulation are met. Exhibitors will risk the Exhibit being disqualified if requirements cannot be produced for auditing purposes.

Celebrating Australia's finest

Proud sponsors of the 2022
KPMG Sydney Royal Wine Show.

KPMG.com.au

7. MULTIPLE BATCH NUMBERS OR BOTTLING DATES

It is recognised that in some instances the same wine may be packaged across multiple bottling dates. Where Exhibitors have bottled two or more batches of a wine (multiple bottlings) under the same label from the 2021 vintage or earlier, the batch number of the Exhibit submitted for judging must be included on the Application for Entry.

An Award bestowed on this Exhibit may only be used in the marketing of other batches of that wine if the Exhibitor can demonstrate, if required, that such batches have identical source materials blended in identical proportions, and within reasonable tolerances, identical chemical and sensory characteristics. This point is particularly relevant to wines from the 2022 vintage, which might be subject to future bottlings. In this case, it is accepted that future batch numbers will not be known at time of entry.

8. COMMERCIAL TITLE

Exhibitors are required to detail the Commercial Titles of all Exhibits on the Application for Entry. Commercial titles will be published in the Results Catalogue online and used for promotional material. Commercial title includes, but is not limited to, the company name, the brand name and wine description including variety/blend, as it appears on the Exhibit's primary commercial label.

The Commercial Title provided will be utilised in all Wine Show publications during and after the Wine Show. Medals and Awards are non-transferable and if an Exhibitor changes the name of a product, the scores, Medals and Awards may cease to apply. If an Exhibitor wishes to change the name of a product, the Exhibitor must contact the RAS to seek permission.

9. DEFINITION OF EXHIBITOR

An Exhibitor means a person, firm, partnership, company or body corporate, which in the opinion of the RAS:

- (a) Manufactures wine and/or brandy; or
- (b) Grows grapes and has wine and/or brandy manufactured for them or it, for the purpose of sale by wholesale or by retail under the name or preferred business name of the Exhibitor as stated in the Application for Entry.

Applications for Entry in the name of deceased person(s) are not eligible for entry.

10. CLASS TRANSFERS & WITHDRAWALS

It is the sole responsibility of the Exhibitor to enter the Exhibit/s in the correct Class or be subject to disqualification without refund of Entry Fee.

The RAS may, at its discretion, without any liability and without the prior approval of the Exhibitor, disqualify or transfer an Exhibit into a different Class than that stated on the Application for Entry if in its opinion the Exhibit has been entered in the wrong Class. No transfer of Exhibit will occur once all entries have been allocated an Exhibit number (Catalogue number).

All refunds of Entry Fees are at the discretion of the RAS. A full refund shall only be made if notification of withdrawal is received via the RAS Competitions System online entry facility or by email to the Wine Coordinator by 5pm on Wednesday 11 May 2022 (Closing Date of Entry).

After this date, if an Exhibitor wishes to withdraw an Exhibit, they must email to the Wine Coordinator by 5pm Friday 22 July 2022. Only in special circumstances will a refund be considered at this point.

Please note that a vintage change is not a Class transfer. The incorrect Exhibit will need to be withdrawn and a new entry will need to be completed by the Closing Date of Entry.

11. BOTTLE REQUIREMENTS FOR JUDGING

Exhibits that proceed to judging of major Trophies can pass through 4-5 rounds of judging. To ensure sufficient wine samples are available at all points of judging, 6 x 750ml bottles (or the volume equivalent, with the exception of Brandy Exhibits) are required. If incorrect sample quantities are received, the Exhibit may be disqualified.

Classification	Classes	Bottles per Entry
White Wine	1 to 18	6 x 750ml
Sweet White Wine	19	6 x 750ml (9 x 500ml or 12 x 375 ml)
Rosé	20	6 x 750ml
Red Wine	21 to 45	6 x 750ml
Sparkling Wine	46 to 52	6 x 750ml
Fortified Wine	53 to 63	3 x 750ml (or 6 x 375 ml)
Brandy	64	2 x 375ml
Zero Alcohol	65	6 x 750ml

Wherever possible, Exhibits should have commercial labelling on the front and back of the wine sample. If an Exhibit does not yet have a commercial label, the sample should have a trial label detailing the full Commercial Title (see Clause 8).

Samples of all wines are also required for promotional purposes, including but not limited to VIP and media tastings, Exhibitor and Trade Tastings, Sponsor and consumer events and educational initiatives.

12. PREPARATION OF EXHIBITS

The RAS will provide Exhibitors with an Exhibitor Confirmation Pack which will include the following:

- (a) Identification labels that contain the Barcode Number, Barcode, Class Number, Class Description and Vintage. Identification labels should be firmly affixed to each Exhibit and placed above the back commercial label, so that the Exhibits' identifying information is intact and all commercial labels are visible.
- (b) Exhibitor Confirmation Advice. It is the Exhibitor's responsibility to check the information on the Exhibitor Confirmation Advice is correct, and accurately reflects the Classes into which the Exhibits have been entered.
- (c) Courier and postal labels.
- (d) Map and delivery instructions.

It is the sole responsibility of the Exhibitor to ensure that the correct identification labels are adhered to the correct Exhibit/s. Any Exhibit/s that are not labelled correctly are subject to disqualification without refund of entry. Should you require additional identification labels or need to make amendments to your Exhibitor Confirmation Advice, please contact the Wine Show Coordinator.

13. DELIVERY OF EXHIBITS

Exhibits must be delivered to the KPMG Sydney Royal Wine Show Supervisor, Sydney Showground, Sydney Olympic Park, NSW 2127. Delivery details will be supplied to Exhibitors closer to the delivery period. Exhibits must be properly marked with the RAS supplied identification labels and delivered from Monday 11 July to Friday 22 July 2022 between the hours of 7.30am and 3.30pm weekdays only. The RAS cannot be held responsible for any theft, loss, delay or damage during the transportation of entries.

14. JUDGING

All Judges are chosen on their industry knowledge and expertise, and come from a broad range of industry sectors, including but not limited to a combination of wine educators, winemakers, viticulturists, wine marketers, retailers, sommeliers, journalists and expert amateurs of wine. Judging panels shall consist of one panel chair, two senior Judges and two associate Judges. The Chair of Judges oversees each panel and has the final power to arbitrate the awarding of points.

All entries are judged 'blind' and assessed on their own merits against a set of criteria. Judges shall not have access to an Exhibit other than from the glass containing it, which is presented to them by Stewards. Judges shall not at any time prior to the announcement of Awards have any access to or any knowledge of the identity of the Exhibit.

Within each Class all entries are allocated a catalogue number which is distinct from the barcode number provided by the RAS.

Where a Class is for a variety of different blends, vintages or varieties, as much as reasonably possible, like will be grouped with like by the Chair of Judges. Judges will be provided with the vintage and varietal make up of each Exhibit as listed on the Application for Entry by the Exhibitor.

Large Classes may be 'split' across a number of panels. Split Class judging is processed after each panel involved determines their 'top gold' from within their portion of the Class. The Panel Chairs will then re-convene with the Chair of Judges, re-taste in random order and determine the single top gold for that Class.

Within each Sparkling, Fortified or Brandy Class, Exhibits will be grouped for judging according to Class-specific criteria, as determined by the Chair of Judges. Judges will be provided with Exhibit descriptions as specified on the Application for Entry.

The RAS Wine Committee is committed to following the 2020 Wine Show Best Practice Recommendations developed by the ASVO.

All Judges are required to complete a Conflict of Interest declaration.

15. GEOGRAPHICAL INDICATION

To allow Judges to assess like with like, within each table wine Class, Exhibits will be grouped according to their geographical indication (GI), as nominated on the Application for Entry. Judges will not be provided with the names of each GI or breaks between GI. Wines will appear in random order within each GI grouping. Please see page 24 for a full GI listing, which is provided to assist you with your Application for Entry. Please refer to <https://www.wineaustralia.com/labelling/register-of-protected-gis-and-other-terms/geographical-indications> for more information.

26. TROPHIES AND SPECIAL PRIZES

For a full list of trophies and special prizes, please see pages 25-31.

Only Gold medal winning Exhibits will be eligible to receive a trophy or special prize. Trophies or special prizes may be withheld in instances where the Exhibits are considered by the Judges to be unworthy of the Award.

Perpetual and Perennial Trophies remain the property of the Royal Agricultural Society of NSW, and therefore ownership of the Trophy does not pass to the winning Exhibitor. However, winners will be presented with an annual prize which can be taken home, and the Exhibitor's name will be engraved on the Trophy.

A Perpetual Trophy is established to honour the memory of an individual or not-for-profit organisation that has had a strong or significant association with the Sydney Royal Easter Show or the Royal Agricultural Society of NSW. Perennial Trophies, established in 2004, differ only from Perpetual Trophies in that they can be named after Commercial Entities.

27. OBLIGATIONS FOR GOLD MEDAL AND TROPHY WINNERS

Successful Exhibitors are required to supply by Tuesday 2 August 2022, at their own expense, the following quantities of Award-winning wine.

Brandy/Fortified	4 bottles	6 bottles

Any Exhibitor who is unable to supply the trophy and Gold medal winning Wine, Brandy or Fortified Wine for the Wine Awards Dinner, Exhibitor & Trade Tasting and Wine Show related events will forfeit their Award.

Please note:

If your Exhibit is selected to be highlighted at any KPMG Sponsor Event or at the President's Medal Dinner, we would appreciate being able to purchase additional quantities at cost price.

Exhibitors who have been awarded a Special Prize or Trophy may also be contacted by the Wine Communicators of Australia (WCA) to have their wine featured at the WCA Sydney Royal Wine Show Trophy Luncheon on Friday 5 August 2022. If selected, Exhibitors will be requested to provide up to five dozen bottles and it is appreciated if an agreement of 50% of wholesale price can be reached.
