Royal Agricultural Society of NSW

ABOUT US

Established in 1822, the Royal Agricultural Society of NSW (RAS) is recognised as an influential force in the direction and development of Australian agriculture. With a vision for a community that understands and values sustainable agriculture and award-quality produce, the RAS measures and celebrates excellence in agriculture through competition, education, events and other activities, ensuring that rural communities and agricultural industries continue to thrive.

- Organisation and staging of the Sydney Royal Easter Show
- Control of the Sydney Showground venue and event management business
- Operation and administration of Sydney Royal competitions
- Provision of grants and scholarships for education and skills development through the RAS Foundation
- Managing the Australasian Animal Registry, the most comprehensive animal registration and recovery service in Australasia.

A non-for-profit organisation, the RAS relies on revenue generated through Sydney Showground business and events, including the Sydney Royal Easter Show, to invest nearly $9million annually into agricultural programs, competitions, education, youth initiatives and strengthening rural communities.

AUSTRALIA'S OLDEST WINE SHOW: 200 YEARS OF SYDNEY ROYAL

In 1826, during its fourth annual agricultural exhibition, the Agricultural Society of NSW offered a small gold medal for the best sample of colonial wine – not less than 10 gallons, certified on oath to be from the vintage of that year. By 1828, there were four classes for wine, despite the colony only having a handful of serious growers. The show system had started small but gained momentum. By 1901, a purpose-built exhibition space called 'the wine kiosk' was being built at the Agricultural Society of NSW's home at Moore Park, giving exhibitors the chance to showcase their wines.

Whilst these initial competitions were small by modern standards, they planted a seed that would grow into the most prestigious wine show in Australia.

Now, 200 years later, the Sydney Royal Wine Show is the oldest continuously run wine competition in Australia, each year drawing on average 2000 entries, from hundreds of Australian wine producers, covering every major wine region in the country. A gold medal from the Sydney Royal Wine Show is one of the most coveted marks of excellence in Australian wine.

Since those early days, wine shows have played a significant role in the advancement of Australian wine, keeping up with stylistic changes and drinking trends. Those responsible for the wine shows direction continue to push the boundaries, leading the way in promoting agricultural excellence.
