FARM DAYS

12. The RAS does not accept AMEX or Diners Club Credit Cards. No personal cheques will be accepted. By submitting payment, the buyer confirms they are either the authorised card holder or has the express consent of the cardholder.
13. Cancellation. If the school/ticketholder can no longer attend a Farm Day (either in person or from home), and provides written notice of this to the RAS:
 - a. within thirty (30) days of the Farm Day, then the school/ticketholder will be liable for 100% of the entire fee; or
 - b. Less than sixty (60) days prior to the Farm Day, then the school/ticketholder will be liable for 50% of the entire fee; or
 - c. Sixty (60) days or more before the Farm Day, then the school/ticketholder will be entitled to a refund of the fee paid by the school/ticket holder.

Examples.

Example 1. If a school/ticketholder purchases a home-school ticket and provides written notice that it can no longer attend the Farm Day 5 days before the Farm Day, that school/ticket holder will be liable for 100% of the entire fee and will not be issued a refund if it has made payment for this.

Example 2. If a school / ticketholder purchases a student ticket and provides written notice that it can no longer attend the Farm Day 30 days before the Farm Day, that that school/ticket holder will be liable for 50% of the entire fee.

Example 3. If a school / ticketholder purchases a student ticket and provides written notice that it can no longer attend the Farm Day 60 days before the Farm Day, that school / ticket holder will be entitled to a refund of the entire fee it has paid.

14. If a Farm Day is cancelled, rescheduled, or relocated, as a result of external factors, the RAS will not offer refunds or exchanges. External factors include, but is not limited to, adverse weather conditions. In all other circumstances, the RAS will only provide a return, refund or exchange of a ticket if a Farm Day is cancelled, rescheduled or relocated at the RAS' sole discretion or if required by law. If a Farm Day is cancelled, the school / ticketholder will not need to apply for a refund as the RAS will automatically process a refund back to the original payment method used to purchase the ticket (see clause 12). Otherwise, the school / ticketholder must apply for a refund by the earlier of (a) four (4) weeks after notification of the cancellation, reschedule or relocation or (b) two (2) weeks before the Farm Day. If the school / ticketholder does not request a refund by that date, then the school / ticketholder will have agreed to the reschedule or relocation and will not be entitled to claim a refund. Proof of purchase may be required for any refund claim.
