SPECIAL REGULATIONS.

I.—All dogs must have chains and collars on, without names attached to enable them to be taken out if required.

II.—Any dog wearing a collar with his owner's name thereon will be disqualified from receiving a prize.

III.—Exhibitors will, on personal application to one of the Stewards, be permitted to loose their dogs for a short time each day—in the morning prior to the opening, and in the evening after the closing of the Exhibition; but they will on no account be permitted to move the same from the Show Bench or from the Grounds, without a written order, under the penalty of disqualification from future Exhibitions and forfeiture of all prizes.

IV.—Dogs considered by the Stewards unfit for exhibition, either from disease, vice, or other cause, will not be received.

V.—Should the exhibitors fail to feed their dogs, the Society will undertake to provide food, and will make a moderate charge for the same at per day, according to the size of the dog and price given for the food, which charge shall be levied before the dog is removed.

REGULATIONS.

1. Exhibitors must be the growers of the Wine entered for competition ; and the wines the produce of grapes only, and samples of a bulk not less than one hundred gallons. The Judges can order any particular wine which they think not pure grape juice to be chemically tested, and if found to contain anything but the pure juice of the grape the exhibitor will be debarred from exhibiting in any future Exhibition.

2. Three bottles of each samples of wine without labels, mottoes, coats of arms, crests or distinctive seals, or marks of any kind, but having only letters affixed (nor the initial of the grower), and packed in cases sealed and locked, shall be delivered at the Society's Office, on or before Monday, 20th March. The Secretary will mark the cases with numbers in consecutive order as received, and enter them in the name of the exhibitor, giving a receipt for the number so entered.

3. The judging will take place during the week prior to the Show.

4. Competitors may enter two or more exhibits in one class, but can only take one prize in such class of Wines of the same distinctive character, and made from the same description of grape. Exhibitors shall at the time of delivery at the office, hand to the secretary certificates signed by them, giving the locality where the Wines are grown, the age, colour, whether of light character or full-bodied, or sweet, and any other information relative to the character of the Wines that may assist the Stewards in classifying them.

5. In case of any infringement or neglect of Rule 4, by which the information therein required is withheld, or if any wilful misstatement be made which is calculated to mislead the Stewards in the classification, the Wine shall in such case be disqualified from competition.

6. The Stewards will check and correct the classification of the Wines, and one bottle of each sample will be opened by them for such classification only ; and the name of the exhibitor will be withheld from them at the time.

7. As prizes are given for the young Wines especially to encourage the farmer, and to enable purchasers to choose good wines for maturing, a price must be stated, and the Judges will be at liberty to take the amount into consideration in making their awards.

8. Points to be calculated as follows—First prize, 2 points; second prize, 1 point,
