FOUR NEW WORLD RECORDS.

Achievements at the 1939 Show.

So many meritorious performances were registered at the 1939 Easter Show Woodchopping and Sawing Carnival that it would be appropriate to preface this year's programme with a brief review of some of the most outstanding achievements. These will not only serve as a record, but also as a convenient means by which this year's results may be compared with those of the previous Show.

The fact that four new world records were established last year substantiates the claim that the Easter Show is the venue for the world's most coveted international championships.

Last year the leading axemen and sawyers from all States of the Commonwealth and New Zealand competed, and they revealed the stamina of the champions of former days.

The first new record created was in the World's Championship Tree-felling Contest. It was accomplished on Good Friday, by Marshall Winkel, the young Queenslander, who hewed through his 13in. block in 2 min. 38 sec. His time bettered the previous world's record by 24 1/5 sec. This was the one created at the 1938 Sydney Show by the Victorian, W. M. ("Bill") Johnston, whose time was 3 min. 2 1/5 sec. Winkel thus equalled Johnston's feat of winning the championship twice. He won the same event in 1937. Johnston was the winner in 1936 and 1938. Incidentally, Winkel bettered his own 1937 time by almost a minute.

Charlie Winkel, Marshall Winkel's brother, also set up a new record. This was in the World's Championship Standing Woodchop of a 15in. log, and he won the event in 57 1/5 sec., clipping 18 1/5 sec. off the time it took him to win the contest in 1938.

Charlie Winkel gave another remarkable performance in the 15in. Under-hand World's Championship Contest. He cut 5 1/2 seconds off the record, his time being 49 1/5 sec. It was a close victory, Nat. Cheers (N.S.W.) being beaten by only three blows, with "Mannie" McCarthy third.

CHATEAU TANUNDA BRANDY — Ensures Good Health.

CHATEAU TANUNDA BRANDY — Finest Medicinal Spirit.

Tom and Eric Kirk (N.S.W.) were the winners of the double-handed World's Championship Sawing Contest. They severed their 20in. log in 14 2/5 sec., setting up a new world record.

The amazing time of 33 3/5 sec. was recorded by "Bill" Johnston in the ninth heat of the handicap standing cut. His opponents were more than half way through their logs before he struck his first blow, yet he won comfortably. The final was won by V. L. Summers (Q'land) in 46 sec.

The most successful axeman and sawyer last year was V. J. Summers, the 19-year-old Queenslander, with 20 points. Charlie Winkel was one point behind, Marshall Winkel being third with 16 points.
